Jean Oelwang's Story

Many of the world's most successful individuals possess a hidden strength. Surprisingly, it's not their experience or technical knowledge, but their ability to form strong partnerships.

As President and founding CEO of Virgin Unite, Jean Oelwang has worked with endless extraordinary individuals. She has observed how they cultivate meaningful connections in both their professional and personal lives. In fact, she has spent over 15 years working with some of the world's greatest partnerships. Together, partners not only become better versions of themselves, but they multiply their positive impact on the world.

Before pioneering Virgin Unite, Jean was the joint CEO of Virgin Mobile in Australia. Specifically, she spent 17 years leading mobile phone companies in South Africa, Bulgaria, Singapore, Hong Kong, Australia, and the US. Since then, Jean has partnered with several global initiatives including:

- The Elders: An independent group of global leaders, founded by Nelson Mandela, working for peace, justice, human rights, and sustainability.
- The B Team: A collective of high-profile business executives creating a new form of leadership to build a better world.
- The Carbon War Room: A nonprofit, now merged with the RMI, focused on accelerating the adoption of low-carbon business solutions.
- And many more!

Now, Jean is hired as a keynote speaker, educating people on the principles that allow organizations to catalyze their growth.
