TESTIMONIALS

“One standout moment was hearing from the amazing Julia Landauer, 2 x Champion Race Car Driver. As a trailblazer in the male-dominated world of race driving, Julia’s message about building confidence, overcoming challenges and breaking barriers truly resonated. Her journey reminded us of the parallels we face in the technology industry where perseverance and self-belief are essential for thriving in a traditionally male-driven space. Her words were a powerful reminder that confidence, courage and collaboration can drive meaningful progress – not just on the racetrack but in our professional lives too.”

– Hayfa, Account Manager

- Leverage Data and Technology
- Iterate and Evolve
- Embrace Discomfort”

“Julia’s inspirational talk at the APWA PWX in Charlotte NC was amazing! The structure of [her] speech was well layered and anyone would find it difficult to believe that [she] experienced any gender bias, instead [she] focused on the positive, that was an admirable way to phrase the discussion”

– Roby, Attendee at PWX
